THE SCOTT STAMP & COIN CO., L'D.

1889.

PREFACE.

The collection herein catalogued is not one containing many great rarities, but every collector will find in it some of those stamps of medium value that are so seldom met with, and a careful perusal of the catalogue will surely be rewarded.

As is usual, some of the mixed lots contain some poor specimens, but in the generality of cases the condition of the stamps is above the average.

It is impossible to give a fair list of the scarce stamps in the catalogue, and will only mention that every page of the catalogue contains something worthy of notice, and the United States revenue stamps are a very attractive feature of the sale.

Stamp auctions are too well established to need any recommendation from us. There are but few collectors who have not reaped the advantage of this method of purchase, where, independently of buying in competition with dealers at first price, often at less than cost, they have the public guarantee of a responsible house as to the genuineness of the stamps purchased. The name of SCOTT on the title page is sufficient guarantee of the accuracy of the description, and that the sale will be conducted with perfect good faith to all concerned, whether they are present in the room or make their purchases through agents.

Collectors living at too great a distance from New York to attend in person, may have their orders executed by the auctioneers, THE SCOTT STAMP & COIN COMPANY, L'D., or other dealers, for a commission of 10 per cent. on amounts under $100; over $100, 5 per cent. A uniform charge of fifty cents made on any amount under $5.

In reference to the method of selling at auction, we should say that each lot is sold to the highest bidder, at so much for each stamp in the lot; so, if you desire a lot of stamps which contains 10 pieces, and you wish to pay $1.00 for it, you should bid 10 cents each. Always state your highest price, relying on the honor of those you employ to make the purchase for you at the lowest possible figure.

The stamps will be on exhibition at the Auction Rooms, on the days of the sale, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M.

SCOTT STAMP & COIN COMPANY, LIMITED.

New York, October 19, 1889.

NOTE.—Every stamp catalogued is warranted genuine.

After the sale, this catalogue can be had with each lot neatly marked in ink with the price realized for it, price 50 cents, post free. Former catalogues also can be had at same price.

CATALOGUE.

NOTE.—ALL STAMPS ARE UNUSED UNLESS OTHERWISE STATED, AND ALL ARE WARRANTED GENUINE.
